

MARKET REPORT – WEEK 22+23

BASED ON SALES AND PURCHASES OF VESSELS WEEK ENDED FRIDAY 10TH JUNE 2022.

Due to bank holidays and Posidonia it is 2 weeks since our last commentary during which the dry freight market's BDI has continued to soften resulting in it losing about 33% of its value over the past 3 weeks. Nevertheless, while capesizes are now only averaging $20,000 per day, Kamsarmaxes, Supramaxes and Large Handysizes are still respectively averaging approximately $23,700, $27,500 and 25,500 daily.

Sales of bulkers do not seem to have been affected much, if at all, by recent decreases in freight rates with fairly long lists of recent sales reported.

Tanker sales continue to post good volume with values now definitely on the rise too, with most interest seemingly in MRs, Aframaxes and Suezmaxes.

Russia's continued aggressive invasion of Ukraine is having ever widening and varied effects on both fuel and food supplies around the world which in turn is having massive effects in the shipping sectors too. While Russian export goods (oil, gas grains, timber etc) are sanctioned, causing the world to find alternative supplies – usually from further away, many other countries now also have to find alternative supplies to replace lost Ukrainian grains and steels etc, also from further away, because Russia has blockaded all Ukrainian Black Sea ports. In turn this has all caused a perfect storm of increased costs to consumers around the world due to global food prices having risen by almost one-third, fertilizer by more than half and oil prices by almost two-thirds since last year.

Subcontinent recyclers are currently seeing very little activity due to the lack of vessels being offered for recycling and the breakers having basically decreased their offered rates over the past 5 weeks from levels in the high$600s to where they are now in the high 500s / low 600s. In fact it is only because Bangladesh and Pakistan are getting low on ship inventory that they have in the past week increased by about $10 across all types, that rates on offer remain in the low 600s at all.
