

MARKET REPORT – WEEK 16

BASED ON SALES AND PURCHASES OF VESSELS WEEK ENDED FRIDAY 19TH APRIL 2024.

After a week of deliberation during which western governments urged Israel not to retaliate to the 320 drones and missiles Iran fired at them on 14th April, Israel did eventually make a token attack on a military airbase in Iran on Friday 19th albeit a significant aspect was that Israel and its allies destroyed all of Iran's weapons before they inflicted any damage in Israel, whereas Israel managed to hit an inland Iranian target with ease.

On Saturday 20th April the US Congress finally approved the region $95 billion worth of foreign aid packages to Ukraine, Israel, Gaza and Taiwan. Much of this money will actually be spent within the US to procure new and stocks of old weapons which will then be shipped to the recipients needing them. The largest tranche will go to Ukraine where a lack of arms and ammunition has allowed the Russians to hold grounds and make gains in recent months.

One other notable shipping / world related item that took place last week was the re-imposition of US sanctions on the Venezuelan oil industry because its President Maduro has not implemented the free and fair elections condition he was set when sanctions were relaxed last October.

Meantime the BDI enjoyed a profitable week closing on Friday up by +11% due to all contributing indexes also posting w-o-w gains: BCI +11.25%, BPI +11.85%, BSI +9.6% and BHSI +2.6%.

Both bulker and tanker S+P volumes were a little subdued last week but that is probably more to do with demand exceeding supply of desirable vessels on the dry side while values for tankers remain very firm.

Of the 3 main recycling areas on the subcontinent only India currently has actual domestic demand for scrap steel and non-ferrous materials and so is bidding at increased levels and actively seeking ships. Pakistan and Bangladesh have meanwhile basically been closed during Eid celebrations but the expectation is that subject to LC availability and ships actually open to offers we may soon start seeing some activity there too.
